

Brown of Martin, who is teaching the Hills School, was in town Sunday, and took an active part in the choir services, also the Easter exercises. We were glad to have this accomplished lady with us. Rev. F. E. Young, P. C., of Allen's Chapel A. M. E. Church preached a very excellent Easter sermon Sunday morning. Rev. R. Vann, P. E., of the Dickson District was present and made some very touching remarks, showing the progress of the Dickson District and his great love for the work, and his deep interest in our welfare, here, where he used to live and pastor. At the schoolhouse last Sunday afternoon most appropriate and beautiful Easter exercises were held by the congregation of Edmond's Chapel A. M. E. Church. The beautiful solos, the recitations, the papers and addresses were very commendable. The people from the schoolhouse went down to the A. M. E. Church, where they and the Baptists' held Union exercises owing to the fact, that Baptist Church was much damaged by the storm. These exercises lasted about three hours and was a grand affair. The solos, duets, choruses, recitations, papers and addresses were very much enjoyed and creditably rendered. Rev. Vann took an active part in the singing and addresses. Space will not allow us to specify some of the special pieces, but to say that all the exercises were fine is "Nough Said."

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Canaan Art Club met in the home of Mrs. Bell Marsh on Wednesday evening past with president, Mrs. J. D. Short presiding. Meeting was opened with song and prayer. Bible verses followed. Remarks made by ladies of the club. Guests of the club were Miss Mittle A. Halfacre and Miss Carrie Otey. After all business each one was busily engaged in needle work. At a late hour, a two course menu was served.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The musical and literary concert given last Thursday night by the students of Turner Normal College, supported by Rev. J. A. Myers, of Murfreesboro, was said to be the greatest event of its kind that has come to Shelbyville in many a day. The concert took place at the City Auditorium, and exhibited before a full house of both white and colored. The colored people occupied one half of the first floor and the entire gallery, while the whites occupied one half of the first floor. The concert consisted of musical selections by Mr. Myers and the Nightingale Quartette, readings from Dunbar by Mr. Myers, and two spectacular drills by a company of girls, under the direction of Mrs. N. B. Benson. The Nightingale Quartet was at its best, and Mr. Myers thrilled the audience with his renditions of classic selections and convulsed them from time with his presentation of some of Dunbar's choicest numbers. Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks of Rockvale were in town last Saturday and Sunday, having come to see their daughter, who is a student in T. N. C. They were the guests of Rev. S. W. West and family. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased at what they saw and heard at Turner. A splendid Easter program was rendered at the A. M. E. Church last Sunday, both day and night. Music was furnished during the day by Turner Normal choir, which rendered some choice selections from the Folk Song book, besides the entire musical program as laid down in the Easter program. Rev. Norman, the pastor delivered an appropriate sermon for the occasion. Rev. J. A. Myers was the guest of Mrs. Cordelia Buchanan during his stay in town last week. He made many friends among the students and faculty of Turner Normal. All will be glad to see him again. Rev. Mr. Gooch, of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church is making fast in town, and his church is on the way to prosperity. Miss P. A. Compton went to Nashville last Friday looking after Spring uniform suits and hats for the girls of Turner Normal. She spent Easter with her people while absent. Misses M. C. Boddie, F. A. William, Dora West and Sallie Commons were entertained at Dr. Keys'.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Rev. Thomas Holden died the 21st His funeral was attended at Mt. Zion Baptist Church by Rev. Henderson and others Sunday, March 23rd. Rev. Holden leaves a wife to whom he has been married only a few months. Rev. Jonah, the Jew, preached at Allen's Chapel last Monday night. Last Sunday was an Easter Sunday. There was a beautiful program rendered at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning by the children; another in the afternoon at the A. M. E. Church and another at Keys' memorial at night. Easter eggs many and beautiful were distributed to the children. The day was beautiful. A severe storm visited our little city last week many buildings were wrecked; thousands of dollars worth of damage done, but the best of all no one was killed outright—one man was seriously hurt. The people here regret to hear of the untimely death of Mr. Frank Battle. The bereaved family have our sympathy. Mr. Willie McGill is still very sick. There will be a rally at the First Baptist Church next Sunday. The storm visited the home of Dr. G. C. Harden and left a little girl for Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Officer last Sunday.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Revival has begun at the Baptist Church, Rev. W. M. McCutcheon of Nashville is conducting it. There will be services at both churches Sunday. A beautiful Easter program was rendered at the Baptist Church Sunday. Mrs. Eva Perry, Miss M. L. Buchanan, Ross E. Buchanan and Reuben Wilson of Nashville were on the program. The pastor preached an Easter sermon. Mrs. B. M. Frier, Misses Dora House, Maggie Luter, Messrs. All L. Wilson, Shirley House went to Murfreesboro to see the destruction wrought by the storm of Thursday night. Mrs. Lucile and daughter, Julia, of Providence spent the week-end with Mrs. Edna Drennon. Mr. and Mrs. Prince Covington, Hattie Burnett, Estella Norman, Luther Johns, Perry, Willie and Reuben Wilson spent the Easter here. Misses Lucinda Thompson and Nannie Gooch gave an Easter Egg Hunt for the little children, which was enjoyed by all present. There were about 100 children at home of Miss Thompson. The eggs were hidden by Misses Emma K. Gregory, Mamie Gooch, Lucinda and Willie Thompson, Mary L. Buchanan. The greater number of eggs was found by Willie Wilson and Luther Gregory. The Women's Auxiliary gave an entertainment Saturday night which was a success. Miss Estella Norman of Nashville spent Sunday night with the Misses Thompson. Mr. Calvin Stennett is digging wells at Amosville. Dr. W. J. Ezelle of Nashville spent Sunday with Mrs. Jannie Mathews. Dr. J. H. Hamilton went to Murfreesboro and from there to Salem to the Masonic turn out.

LEBANON NOTES.

Mrs. Woods died Thursday morning of last week and was buried at Cedar Grove. A son and several granddaughters survive her. Mrs. M. J. Owens has returned from Nashville. Miss Essie Pettie and Miss Florence W. Hughes entertained March the 23rd with an Easter Egg Hunt at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Pettie. Mr. Reuben Hale is able to be at work again. The Misses Bass Parelle and Bessie spent Saturday and Sunday at Lurgado. Mr. Asbery Kurkondol, who has been trying to locate his sister for two years has found her in Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. C. H. Hellins, Col. H. Hughes and daughter, Florence were the guests of Mr. J. W. Pettie Thursday evening. The Texas Big Four met Saturday night at Judge Coran, on Coles Ferry Pike. Col. H. Hughes and Mr. John Manning were the special guests. Miss Laura Young has returned home. Dr. Joseph Turner was called to Pulaski. A home wedding of much interest was that of Miss Ollie M. Johnson to Mr. Oliver Bass, which took place Thursday night, March the 20th at the bride's residence on East Sycamore street. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, about five minutes before the marriage took place, Mrs. L. J. Singleton played and sang, "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" and promptly at eight o'clock, the bridal party began to march into the room by the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march which was played by Mrs. Singleton and stood under a beautiful arch made of white lilies and maiden hair fern from which hung a large white veil. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. F. P. Leavell. The bride came in with her father; she was beautifully gowned in white silk voile over Taffetta silk with trimmings of pearls, and her bouquet was of pink and white roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Johnson is the only daughter of the late Mrs. Len Hellms and being the only granddaughter of the late Rev. Dr. Gilbert Hill. She is a young woman of many friends and attractions. The groom is one of Lebanon's most popular young men and is employed at Crowder Bros' Barber shop. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for her aunt's residence, Mrs. Chester Butler, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Whitley and little son have returned to Boston after spending a pleasant visit here. Mr. J. W. Pettie was invited out Sunday to appointed dinner given at the residence of Mr. S. A. Hatcher, a well to do farmer. Mr. John Johnson is thinking of locating here and opening up a store of general merchandise. Miss Jennie V. Hughes entertained the Farmers' Club handsomely. A beautiful musical program was rendered with Rev. B. F. Denny at the piano while Miss Florence Hughes sang; Miss J. V. Hughes played the violin. Rev. B. F. Denny addressed the club his subject was What Will the Future Destiny of the Negro Race Be? Miss Hughes encouraged the club to take what money they now have and open up some kind of business for themselves. The club will meet Saturday. Mrs. Martin Manson has returned from Nashville where she had an operation. She has recovered.

EDENWALD NOTES.

The First Baptist Church of this place held its service last Sunday and Sunday night. Rev. Womack preached both day and night. The services were much enjoyed by all who heard them. Rev. Reed of Madison and Rev. Lewis of Cedar Grove were also present. The Ladies Auxiliary Board met at Mrs. Lizzie Cantrell's last Monday. Mrs. Maggie Reed read an interesting paper on "Love and Unity." Miss Annie Fite visited her brother, Mr. Orange Cantrell Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cantrell and Rev. Womack went to Goodlettsville to an Easter exercise nice time. Mr. Lee Thomas "entire" last Sunday evening and reported a of Roger Williams University is visiting his father and mother at this place. Mrs. Mary Burns and Miss Rachel Burns of Nashville were the guests of Mrs. Ella Hall of this place last Saturday. Mrs. Oldham visited the little sick daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Mrs. Ella Hall was the guest of Mrs. Oldham last Monday. Mrs. Oldham entertained at dinner last Sunday Mr. Alex. Dover. There were three courses served. Mrs. Ella Hall spent a few days in Flat Rock last week visiting her father, Rev. Gilmore who was called to his home on business last Friday. Mrs. Nettie Bowman left this place last Saturday for Lurgado, where she will spend a week with her mother. The Sunday-schools of this place are doing nicely now.

CALLED TO THE BEDSIDE OF A FRIEND.

Special to the Globe. Conasauga, Tenn., March 19.—Mrs. Pearl Robinson was called to Nashville recently on account of the illness of her friend, Mrs. Betty Richmond, who died a few days ago. Mrs. Richmond was taken sick on February 4th while visiting her brother, Mr. Jeff Johns, at her old home, Walter Hill, Tenn., where she died. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in West Nashville. She belonged to the Knights and Daughters of Tabor. She was devoted to both her church and lodge. Mrs. Richmond has many friends in Nashville and was loved by every one who knew her.

CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. L. E. Porter, of Memphis, the wife of Dr. G. W. Porter, is visiting

TWO PIONEERS PASS TO THE GREAT BEYOND.

MRS. CHARLOTTE BENTON.

The death of Mrs. Charlotte Benton who died a few days ago removed from the stage of action one of the pioneers of this city, and calls to mind that the ranks of the old guard are thinning out. Mrs. Charlotte Benton was born in Virginia 1804. She left there at the age of thirteen and came to Nashville, Tennessee. At the age of twenty she married Silas Benton from their union there were three children, Malinda, Louise and Ellen. After fifteen years, her first husband died. She remained a widow several years. She married Horatio Benton. There were three daughters and one son as a result of this union. Horatio Benton and Charlotte Benton lived together for twenty-five years and the husband died after helping to complete Ft. Negley. After the war, the widow, Charlotte Benton took up residence in Evansville, Indiana, where she remained upwards of ten years. She then removed to Louisville where she lived for thirty years and was living at the time of her death, March 4, 1913.

She died in the Lord, having professed when she was about 30 years old. She was a faithful Christian and true to the Methodist faith for more than seventy years and until her death. Her life was full of good works and she left behind her a good name and record of kind and unselfish deeds. Her life was a rare example of Christian love and human bravery.

Mrs. Benton was a member of Clark Memorial M. E. Church when it was called the Andrews Charge and when the colored people had to go in the basement to services. Her first husband, Mr. Silas Benton worked on the foundation of the Andrews Charge, now Clark Memorial Church.

A striking incident in the last days of Mrs. Benton was that in her last days, she lived in Louisville, Ky., with her oldest and only child, Mrs. Malinda Jackson. Mrs. Jackson was the mother of Mrs. Alice J. Frazier of 16 Cannon avenue, this city. Just before the death of Mrs. Benton her daughter was called to the sick bedside of Mrs. Frazier. She was not gone long before she took sick and her husband this week, and will remain in the city until after the great rally, April 27th. Miss Corrie Clark, of 714 Winter street, is able to be out again.

FAYETTEVILLE NOTES.

A party of five went through our town in an automobile to Huntsville, Bonner, Messrs. M. Frazier of Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Morton. Among those who were: Misses Frances Commons, Myrtle and Eugenia Bonner, Messrs. M. Frazer of Lewisburg and Clarence Enner, the chauffeur. They all reported an enjoyable Easter. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Washington, formerly of this place who is now residing in Dayton, Ohio, made a flying trip here Friday. Miss B. R. Clark spent the week-end in Nashville. While there she attended the Teacher's Association, returning home Saturday, March 23rd. Prof. J. W. Beasley returned home Saturday from Nashville. A splendid missionary program was rendered at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Easter Sunday night. Prof. J. W. Beasley acted as master of ceremonies. Every selection was well rendered and a good collection was taken for missions.

DEATH LIST.

Mattie B. Robinson, 1216 Milson avenue, 21 years. Margaret Hynes, Kohomo, Ind., 19 years. Charles Draper, alley rear 1214 Broadway, 31 years. Jennie Higgins, Isolated Hospital, 31 years. McEwen Gray, County Isolation Hospital, 15 years. Annie Louise Jackson, rear 319 Second avenue, 10 days.

in two weeks from the time she arrived in the city she was buried. It then devolved upon Mrs. Frazier, the grand daughter of Mrs. Benton to look after her in Louisville as she was too weak to be brought to Nashville. The end came soon and the body was brought here for interment. There are only three of the family living now. These are a granddaughter, Mrs. Alice J. Frazier, and two great granddaughters, Mrs. Alice Frazier Nelson and Miss Elizabeth Menton Moore.

MRS. MARY WEBB.

Mrs. Mary Webb, who died March 14th, was one of the pioneers of this city. She was sold a slave when thirteen years old at Richmond, Virginia and brought to the city of Nashville the year James K. Polk took his seat. She united with the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, under Rev. Vandervall in 1882. Mrs. Webb was an interesting character from many points of view. She had a wonderful constitution and never tired in her devotion to her children and grand children. She was for many years a nurse, and while engaged in that occupation, she served some of the leading families in this city. Among them were the Zolicofer's, the Overton's, the Whites, the McGannons and many other.

She kept in touch with the social life of her grandchildren and other young friends. They felt free to discuss with her their social affairs in every detail and she could always add a little word here and there; a little connecting line; a bit of experience or humor that would so fill the heart with joy and sunshine. Her memory was unexcelled. She could discuss noted characters of history dating long before the war, and kept pace with current events in the political as well as the religious world. She loved to comfort the sick and her wonderful strength and perseverance, her patience and wholesome sacrifice are traits worthy of commendation. She loved her church and when her health permitted was a constant worker and donator. Two daughters, twelve grand-children and six great grand-children survive her.
